Greetings From The East

Brothers,

I hope this message finds all of you well. As the month of May draws to a close so does my year in the East. I have really enjoyed serving the Lodge as Worshipful Master this year. It has been an enlightening and educational time. I have met some great Brothers from around the State and our District that proved to me that this Fraternity that we belong to is truly of fraternity of brotherhood. Each and every one of the Brothers that I have met has proved to me that we are truly a family of great men.

I am grateful to all the members of Allen Lodge 1435 for allowing me to serve you as Worshipful Master. We have a great Lodge, and I am proud to have been able to continue in the footsteps of those whom have come before me. I hope to see all of you at this month's Stated Meeting times were we will be electing and appointing the upcoming officers for the upcoming Masonic Year. I know that we will have some outstanding men fill in the chairs.

May God bless all of you and Safe and Happy summer.

See you at the stated meeting!

Safe travels my Brothers!

Sincerely and Fraternaly,

Alan Robertson
